

Churn Analysis

Support speed is strongly linked to customer retention. Fast response times keep customers, while delays increase churn. This export includes cleaned order data, an executive summary, and interactive charts for stakeholder review.